ANTI BULLYING AMBASSADORS

Recently 8 children from school were chosen to attend training to become Anti-Bullying Ambassadors. The event, organised by the Princess Diana Trust was a great way to get involved in the Anti-Bullying Programme and become an anti-bullying school in our local area. They explored the meaning of bullying, the different types of bullying behaviour and the negative impact it can have, through drama, group work, games and presentations. They also examined how to tackle bullying by sharing their ideas with other schools, understanding their responsibilities and making an action plan. The training empowered them and gave them confidence. The Ambassadors have now put in place a programme which will be delivered throughout the year to help educate the rest of the school.

The Ambassadors (pictured below) are: Chace E, Paigton F, Kaiya M, Joseph T, Adrienne C, Riley N, Lewis Rae Y and Ollie B.
